Student welfare was the main concern of the committee, hence, aspects like issue of bus pass, library cards, identity cards etc., for students were made easily available without any hurdles.

It was resolved to familiarise the code of conduct guidelines by frequently informing the students by all staff members both teaching and non-teaching faculty.

The committee rectifies and guides students if they commit any mistakes as per norms regarding their understanding of the code of conduct guidelines.

Code of conduct guidelines were made known to students through college prospectus at the time of their admission.

The committee took measures to create awareness among students regarding the various cells/units like 'Students grievance redressal cell', 'Anti-sexual harassment cell', 'Anti-ragging cell' and others highlighting the objectives of 'Student welfare, counselling and disciplinary committee'.

In the year 2019-2020 the code of conduct guidelines were made familiar to students of all combinations, by narrating each and every aspect quoted in the list of guidelines in the 'Fresher's day' event where the new students are given a warm welcome by the college.

Implementation of the code of conduct guidelines was considered as the basic need for maintaining discipline in the college campus.

Code of conduct guidelines are informed to students well in advance through college prospectus at the time of their admission and is also displayed in the main notice board of the college.
